

Sports Pictures submitted by Diane Thomas to sportsdesk@lamorindaweekly.com. Thank you Diane!

Moraga Baseball Association (MBA) Pinto Cardinals vs Cubs game on Saturday March 24th

Moraga Baseball Association (MBA) Pinto Cardinals vs Cubs game on Saturday March 24th

Moraga Baseball Association (MBA) Pinto Cardinals vs Cubs game on Saturday March 24th

LMYA 1st grade girls soft-baseball Raptors vs Scrappers game on Saturday March 24th.

LMYA 1st grade girls soft-baseball Raptors vs Scrappers game on Saturday March 24th.

LMYA 1st grade girls soft-baseball Raptors vs Scrappers game on Saturday March 24th.

LAMORINDA WEEKLY

Demographics, Circulation and Distribution

Lamorinda Weekly is free of charge for all households and many businesses in Lafayette, Moraga and Orinda California.

Print edition:26,000 copies

Distribution:

- 11,000 Lafayette households
- 5,500 Moraga households
- 7,800 Orinda households
- 100 St. Mary's College
- 1,200 Public places and local business

The online edition is also free without subscription or log in procedure. Paid advertising will be included in the online copy of the newspaper for no additional charge.

Our online concept allows visitors to open page-by-page, open or download the whole edition.

Each story is available as a single story to read online, download, print or forward as an email. All advertising from the same page will be posted with each story in the single files.

To read the online edition, visitors need to use pdf reader software like Adobe Acrobat Reader™, which is free for download, and most likely already installed.

A perfect way to reach your customers!

- Affordable advertising with the highest coverage ever available
- Color on all pages
- State Of The Art newspaper print
- Print and Online edition = one price
- Short lead times
- Announce your weekend events on Wednesdays

100% coverage

we mail to all houses for free, no subscription needed!

