Grant Stubblefield, Manager of Lori Perfect Tan, and Matt Poirier from Moraga Hardware and Lumber are proudly wearing buttons created for the campaign, "Shop Moraga First."

The brainchild of a core group of volunteers who are working on finding ways to encourage Moragans to invest in their own town, this slogan reminds us that by keeping tax dollars in Moraga you invest in your infrastructure and services.

The campaign will be underscored at the first annual Art, Wine and Merchants Faire to be held at the Rheem Shopping Center on May 5. (More about the Moraga Beautiful week, this event and the Energy Faire in our next issue.)

Grant Stubblefield designed the logo for the buttons, which were ordered and paid for by Lori Stubblefield. Other merchants such as Bill Snider from Moraga Hardware and Lumber have invested their time and money to start this campaign.

They hope with the assistance of the Moraga Chamber of Commerce that many Moraga businesses will get involved. Look for the posters and other media materials highlighting the benefits of shopping in Moraga.
