

Fowl Play

A large Tom turkey was seen recently at approximately 8:00 p.m. Saturday evening on Ascot Drive with a large feathered arrow protruding from its body. The arrow pierced its left shoulder and exited out the chest. The arrow was so large, the remainder dragged behind the turkey.

Joseph and Johanna Tieger said a flock of at times 22 large vocal turkeys regularly come down the canyon following the nearby creek to feed at a vacant lot on Ascot.

Biological Consultant Gary Beeman with Wildlife Management was called to set up a live-trap, in hopes of catching the injured turkey so the arrow could be surgically removed.

Turkeys are not targets and the Lamorinda Weekly encourages all archers to shoot responsibly.
