

OBA Pinto League Sluggers Take Win

Submitted by Laura Dorma

In a nailbiting finish to their May 15 game, the OBA Pinto League Sluggers slid past the Bombers in the last inning to finish 25-22. The Bombers' strong offense was slowed when Sluggers PA Casey McGonigle got two outs at first, and fielder Jimmy Ricksen made a stunning catch at the bottom of the fifth for the third out, leaving the Sluggers to enter the last inning 22-24. In the last inning, McGonigle's triple was accompanied by singles from Carter Supple, Emerson Smith, and Mike Dakis, who had earlier hit a home run, and the inning was crowned with a home run by Jake Hassard, handing the Sluggers their 25-22 victory. Triples by Sluggers players Jack O'Melveny, Marky Presten and Stephen Schmidt were key in the early innings, and Sam Foss and Ethan Fischler contributed skillful fielding throughout the game.
