

Webcam of Lafayette Library

Construction

By Cathy Tyson

Want to take a peak at how construction of the Lafayette Library is progressing?

There is a webcam positioned for that very purpose. According to Ann Merideth, Lafayette Community Development Director, "The installation of the camera was requested by the State Office of Library Construction, so that construction could be monitored remotely from Sacramento. The webcam will be in operation until the Library opens." Bessie Condos, Bond Administration, Library Facilities Consultant is the lucky civil servant who will be "watching to monitor progress." She also notes that it's a good way to keep the community updated and generally people are excited to watch. Feel free to spy, www.csipm.com/webcams_lafayette.html. At the moment, you'll see a big hole in the ground with a retaining wall.
