

Áegis of Moraga Invites Everyone to Join in the Fun

Who says there's never anything fun to do in Moraga? Áegis of Moraga held its annual Antique Car Show on Saturday, June 9th. The car show was open to the public and held in the front parking lot. The variety of antique cars on display was provided by the California Region of the Antique Car Club of America.

Paul Bittner, President of the Antique Car Club, arranged an assortment of vintage cars to come to Áegis of Moraga and "talk shop" to the residents, family and friends of the assisted living community. Residents of Áegis reminisced and shared stories of their own experiences in similar cars. The "first date in the rumble seat" was a popular story shared by more than a few of the residents!

Áegis resident Gordon Bang included his 1962 Red Convertible Classic Corvette in the car show. Gordon brings his car to the show each year and lovingly polishes it to a shine while sharing stories of his favorite car.

Lively jazz music was provided by The LaSalle Street Band, much to the enjoyment of the Áegis residents and guests. Kitty Kersten, another resident, danced up a storm to the music of the band while her audience sipped pink lemonade and ate freshly popped popcorn and chocolate chip cookies.

Coming up:

Áegis of Moraga will host an event for the Moraga Historical Society on Thursday, June 28th from 7:30 pm to 9:00pm. California native John Keibel will speak on the history and human story of the Concord Naval Weapons Station, which he has been documenting for ten years. Keibel will be citing extensive research, relating firsthand accounts and sharing documentary photography. He will begin to unwrap an intricate web of life and loss, patriotism and protest, and scientific advance.
