

Today, Lafayette; Tomorrow, Le Tour?

Let the race begin!

Some wore jeans and t-shirts, others stayed cool in shorts and tank-tops, and a few were adorably clad in pint-sized versions of the colored team kits worn by their cyclist parents. Many local adult cyclists from around Lamorinda did quite well in the 3rd annual Lafayette Critterium on July 15 (view the race results at <http://www.c4racing.org/www/events.htm>). For many lining the streets of Lafayette that morning, the real stars of the day were those too young to race for a team but who pedaled their little hearts out nonetheless, to the delight of a crowd of cheering spectators. All proud little racers received ribbons, and some will always remember their first race!
