

Concert at the Reservoir

By Cathy Tyson

A lovely loop around the reservoir and music to celebrate your workout? Yes, this weekend, for the fifteenth straight year, the Lafayette Rotary Club will sponsor this popular springtime event. From 1:00 until 4:00 p.m. on Saturday May 17, the Reservoir will be humming with musical activity.

“Enjoy a day on the green, and a free concert that includes musicians from the age of 12 to 92. The event celebrates the wonderful music programs our community supports. The money raised goes back to the schools where new instruments are purchased for future musicians. Where else can you get Mo Levich, Bob Athayde, Brian Pardo, Rick Meyers, Frank Como, Tom Carter, Al Hart and Countess Felder all on one stage. Our local music scene is something I feel very lucky to be around,” notes Jay Lifson, Executive Director of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce. The concert is free, but donations are gratefully accepted to benefit school music programs.

The Stanley Symphonic Band, the Acalanes Wind Ensemble, the Big Band of Rossmoor and the Bentley School Jazz Combo will be entertaining the crowd all afternoon. The Rotary would like to thank the many members of the community that have pitched in to make this event possible; Diablo Foods, Oakwood Athletic, Coldwell Banker, Cortese Investments, Diablo Rapid Print, Minuteman Press, Town Center Properties, Whoehrl & Son Builders, Oak Hill West, the Chamber and EBMUD.
