Taste of Lafayette – a Big Success

By Cathy Tyson

It was a sell out crowd for last week's Taste of Lafayette. Sunny skies and a lovely warm evening greeted the throng of hungry event goers. Smoked duck appetizers from the Duck Club at the Lafayette Park Hotel and complimentary wine care of Creekside Partners Investment Counsel got the evening off to a good start. The twenty participating restaurants spread along Mt. Diablo Boulevard had a consistent stream of patrons eager to try their signature dishes.

Although the final numbers aren't in yet, Chamber of Commerce Executive Director Jay Lifson estimates typically $20,000 from ticket sales and auction proceeds will be made after expenses, to be split between the Lafayette Community Foundation and the Chamber.
