An Ironman triathlon is a very demanding and rigorous discipline. At first glance, one may not see what caffeine has to do with it. The Ironman Triathlon Corporation, managed by the Caicedo family, has diversified and started "Bunu LLC," a company distributing organic coffees in Lafayette. The company prides itself in selling only the best 100% certified organic, single origin beans. "The result is a superbly dark, bold and satisfying coffee," says owner and long time Lafayette resident Kiko Caicedo. The choice of coffees are: 100% Kona, harvested from the A'ama Organic Farms on the Hawaiian island of Kona; a single-origin organic Guatemalan that comes from the El Quiche region located high in the mountains of tropical Ixcán, and an organic Peruvian coffee coming from the Ccochapampa co-op (150 small family farms), which is in the Cuzco region (south-central Peru). The coffee is available online and at Sharp Bicycle in Lafayette, not such a strange place for people who also train and race triathlon, marathons, and cycling events.

The new menu includes Scottish Salmon, Grimaud Farms Duck Breast, Filet Mignon, and Bison Rib-Eye. Ingredients selected by Chef Chuck Courtney are mostly seasonal and regional. Constructionplace.com, Inc. Announces On-Line Project*Moraga, 377-0188 - www.constructionplace.com

Gary Westernoff, CEO of the Constructionplace.com, will offer an on-line Project Registry (patent pending) where property owners can input and save their pertinent project data. The data are structured in a database, while tracking and reporting the performance of professionals and resources, thus making it easier to turn projects into cash. According to Westernoff, "Accountability of project professionals and resources is becoming increasingly more difficult for novice property owners, and many times for sophisticated owners. And not maintaining a project history for disclosure purposes can be very worrisome." He believes that his new product will eliminate these worries for good.
