Tick Tock Store in Moraga

Rheem Shopping center (by the Rheem Theatre) 354 Park Street 376 1888

Brian Nguyen knows about clocks and about hard work. He's been running a clock store in Walnut Creek (by Lunardi's) for 8 years, and opened on May 11 a new store in Moraga. In order to minimize overhead, he mans the Moraga store mostly week-ends and evenings and can be found in Walnut Creek the rest of the time. Nguyen's specialty is clock and watch repair, antiques as well as new ones. He will take care of replacing the battery of your wristwatch as well as resuscitating your 18th century grandfather clock. The Nguyens have been in this business for three generations, and Brian learned the craft from his grandfather and father. The Moraga store is open on Sunday and Monday and evenings Tuesday to Saturday 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. "I'm very excited to do business in Moraga," said Nguyen, "I knew the town because I had many customers from Lamorinda that I can now serve locally."

Mosaic Financial Partners, Inc

Brittany Comes to Shore in Orinda

Laurent Le Barbier makes traditional crepes to order at the Orinda Farmers' Market. "Bretons" are a people of peasants, fishermen and merchants. Their culinary tradition mixes hearty dishes and seafood, that is both simple and very tasty. Le Barbier comes from generations of "Bretons" who used to make crepes in the fireplace and worked markets around the Golf du Morbihan. At the market, he serves salty Savory crepes (organic buckwheat flour, gluten free) with a variety of toppings including the traditional "complete" Ham & Cheese & Egg, vegetarian options like the Brie-Pesto & Tomato, or seafood treats like the Smoked Salmon-Crème Fraiche-green onion & dill. For desert, ask for the sweet crepes (all purpose flour) with butter, sugar & lemon or apple confit with caramel sauce among other specialties.

On May 8 Patti Camras organized her first speed-networking for women, an event where she invited women with whom she had been doing business on a regular basis and would gladly refer. "I wanted to create an environment for networking so that these terrific women professionals could find out about each other," said Camras, "I strongly believe that people who own their own businesses understand the benefit of networking, and now more than ever, we need each other to keep our businesses vital in today's economy." "The event was fun and very well organized," said Wendy Scheck from Lamorinda Weekly, one of the 24 women who attended the event, "She had us talk with each other and move around every 5 minutes. It was kind of an enterprising thing to do." Camras plans to host another event in September after the school year starts.

News from the Three Chambers of Commerce
Small Business Awards

Three Lamorinda businesses were recognized at the Contra Costa Council's 9th Annual Small Business Awards:

Minuteman Press, Moraga UPS Store and Shelby's.

On May 15 the Contra Costa Council gave business awards to 10 Contra Costa small business owners, all nominated by their local Chamber of Commerce. The awards recognize the business owners' success in developing an outstanding business and their contribution to the community.

"Ron and Steve Palsa moved their business, Minuteman Press, from Walnut Creek to Lafayette about 6 years ago," says Jay Lifson, Lafayette Chamber CEO, "they took a chance on Lafayette and bought the building next to the Lafayette Park Hotel & Spa on the East end of Mt. Diablo Blvd. What happened next was a partnership that resulted in one of Lafayette's most successful businesses and a community member that has never stopped supporting our city."

"A few years ago, with a dream to own their own business, Javier and Jacqueline Galdon searched for an affordable franchise opportunity in the Bay area, and they happened upon the Mailboxes Etc/UPS Store in Moraga," says Edy Schwartz,

President of the Moraga Chamber of Commerce, "with no background in shipping or retail, but with a lot of support and guidance from the previous owner and the franchise, three years later, the UPS store has become an indispensable 'office' for many home based businesses in Moraga."

"The Orinda Chamber unanimously chose Shelby's to receive this award," says Candy Kattenburg, Executive Director of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce, "it's not unusual that when you walk into Shelby's you are greeted by the owner Carlos Rangel and if you glance over to the kitchen area you can wave hello to (the other owner) Chef Arno Kober. It's Orinda's local 'hang out' and if you haven't tried Shelby's you should stop by on a nice day to sit outside and experience great dining."
