More and more readers are making the effort to subscribe to the free Lamorinda Weekly by submitting their addresses through our web site. We encourage you to add your subscription; it will help us reduce our mailing costs in the future. Your friendly, neighborhood newspaper is free because all of our expenses are paid through print advertising. To support the Lamorinda Weekly, simply talk about us within the community and let your local businesses know about us.
We are an independent group of Lamorinda residents and are not associated with any other newspaper or publishing group (i.e. we are not the Lamorinda Sun or the Contra Costa Sun).
The Lamorinda Weekly offers a variety of different editorial sections to which you can contribute, such as Letters to the Editor, Public Forum, Community Service, Schools and Sports. Try us out and send in your own letter, article or photo!
