Silent Auction to Help Haiti

Campolindo art and woodshop students joined together for a show in an effort to raise money for the Red Cross Haiti Relief Fund on February 27th and 28th. One hundred student artists raised $3000 through the auction of over 100 works of art and wood crafts such as breadboards, clocks and a very cool chessboard. The well-attended event was organized by Campolindo teachers Jill Langston and Don Dupont, and was hosted by Anthony Ruiz at Fast Frame in Lafayette. W. Scheck
