Lafayette Police Blotter

Lost and Found, 7/18/10 An East Street resident discovered her car had been burglarized. Shortly thereafter, the bag of missing items was recovered in a stairwell of the apartment complex. Perhaps the suspect did not find the woman's gym clothing useful. A neighbor believes she saw the unknown suspect.

Radio Shatter, 7/23/10 An unknown, yet brazen, suspect smashed a glass door at Radio Shack on Mt. Diablo Boulevard. He lifted the glass to gain access to the store and left with a laptop computer. A K-9 search ended with negative results. The computer is valued at $280 and the damage at $240. All this for a $280 computer?

Another Broken Window, 7/23/10 An unknown suspect threw a large rock through the window of JA Design and Construction on Mt. Diablo Boulevard. Police are hopeful that the identity of the suspect will be revealed by video surveillance. Perhaps the suspect was warming up for the big Radio Shack heist?

Don't Forget Your Bike Lock

7/23/10 - A McDonald's patron had his unlocked bicycle stolen from outside the restaurant. The teenager's bike was valued at $600...ouch!
