

Published August 4th, 2010

Orinda Police Blotter

Some of the remnants of the felony toilet paper vandalism in Orinda. Photo courtesy of City of Orinda Police.

Grand theft, 7/29/10 The unknown suspect strikes again. A construction firm had a job on Upton Road. One of the workers left the site at 5:30 one evening. Upon his return to the job site at 7:30 the following morning, he noticed the gas compressor was gone. No suspects at this time.

Reach the reporter at: info@lamorindaweekly.com

Copyright © Lamorinda Weekly, Moraga CA

D.U.I., 7/29/10 A 28-year-old was caught driving on a suspended license, at 8:30 in the morning, while drunk on Camino Pablo near Miner Road. His truck was towed and impounded by Orinda Towing and he was taken to Martinez Detention Facility. Hair of the dog?

Felony toilet papering, 7/18/10 Unknown suspects on Tahos Road rearranged backyard furniture, threw toilet paper all over house and yard, and threw patio furniture on roof. Homeowner reports damage to eaves of house, Jacuzzi cover, and solar garden lights. $925 in estimated damages - a ceramic pot was also taken. The homeowner will be talking with his teenage son to see if any of his pals are suspects.

Staged furniture swiped, 7/17/10 An unknown suspect forced entry into a home on La Espiral that is for sale. "Staged furniture" was removed. Nothing seen or heard, no fingerprints. Estimated loss $15,000. Awfully nice furniture.