

Dear Lafayette Residents,

As the 2010 election race comes to a close, I'm sure you're looking forward to an end to this noisy campaign season. So if you're taking the time to read this letter – Thank You.

For the first time in a long time, Lafayette voters have a real choice, with opposing views to consider, in the race for City Council.

I hope that during the last several months I've made a good case for why I'm the right person for the job. I've tried to be clear and forthright about my qualifications, why I'm running, and where I stand on the issues. As the challenger candidate, I've had to work harder to get my message out there. I hope, on that count at least, I've succeeded.

Like many of you, I feel that Lafayette needs a change from the status quo; that new voices and new perspectives need to be considered. I want to make our local government more inclusive, open and transparent.

If Lafayette is to prosper, we need to involve all its residents in the process of government. I will work to find new ways to reach out to those who may have been disinclined or discouraged from participating in local affairs.

I promise to fight for FISCAL RESTRAINT and MEASURED GROWTH; to LISTEN and be INCLUSIVE; to bring a renewed and FRESH PERSPECTIVE to the issues and challenges that face Lafayette.

Respectfully, I ask you to vote for me, Traci Reilly, for Lafayette City Council on November 2nd.

Thank You and Kind Regards,

Traci Reilly

PS: I'd like to take this last opportunity to thank the many people who have supported my campaign – through their wise counsel, donations of time and money, hosting coffees and fundraisers, posting signs, sending viral emails or just giving their endorsement to my campaign. It has been an amazing experience. THANK YOU!
