Saint Mary's women's volleyball defeated Pepperdine University in five sets in the program's first-ever nationally televised game on Thursday, October 21. ESPN covered the match. Sophomore outside hitter Gabby Jolly (pictured above #3) notched 10 kills in the first two sets and 16 kills on the night. After the weekend win against LMU (3-1) the Gaels now improve to 6-1 in WCC play and are tied with Pepperdine for second place.
