Coming Soon In Orinda

infrastructure issues will be on the agenda. Vice Mayor Steve Glazer has suggested that the Council discuss forming a subcommittee to work on ways to address Orinda's road repair needs.

On Saturday, May 21st Orinda will host its first Community Public Services Fair to introduce both new and longtime residents to city and public safety services, utility providers, local nonprofits, and clubs. Staff will be on hand in the Library Plaza, 26 Orinda Way adjacent to the Farmers Market, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. to answer questions and help residents learn more about the community.

At the April 19th Council meeting, Council member Amy Worth suggested, and her colleagues concurred, that the City request the members of Orinda Vision make a presentation at an upcoming Council meeting regarding their ideas for development in the city. The date is to be determined. A.Firth
