Campolindo Wrestling Post-Season Highlights

Submitted by Bob McLaughlin

Campolindo wrestling finished the regular season with a 12-2 record. The Cougars lost a close match to Las Lomas to finish second in the DFAL.

In the NCS Duals tournament, Campolindo beat Clayton Valley, but lost to Albany. In the consolation bracket, Campolindo beat Miramonte and Clayton Valley, for the second time, to earn third place.

Campo had four league champions: Jackson Hagglund at 108, Grant Smith at 115, Alex Mirante at 140 and Chris Wellbrook at 184.

The Cougars also sent 11 wrestlers to the NCS tournament.

Coach Bob McLaughlin, now in his 15th season at Campo said, "This is the hardest working and most fun group of kids I have ever had. We have had state champions here but never a complete team like this, no superstars, just hard work with a smile."
