Theatre Square Collects
Food for Food Banks

Photo Sophie Braccini

The first annual Theatre Square Haunted House was a big success and attracted lines of generous residents who came with food for local food banks. "We collected 500 pounds that we're donating," said Victory Ivry of Table 24 and Barbaoco.

Artisan Faire
Returns to OCC

Submitted by Anne Bolte

The annual Artisan Faire, and complimentary wine tasting, will take place Thursday, November 15 from 4 to 7:30 p.m. at the Orinda Country Club.

Participating artists include George Lucido who, after retiring as an aerospace engineer more than a decade ago, followed his ancestors' love of woodworking by crafting wood objects; Gerry Wallace, known for her whimsical teapots, serving plates, jewelry and Christmas ornaments; Gail Solt, the vision behind the Artisan Faire, whose necklaces quickly sell out. In addition, local authors Jim Roethe and Jil Plummer will be signing their books, and Kellee Bachour will show her line of children's clothing.

Two dozen artists will showcase fashion art, glasswork, jewelry, painting, photography and gourd art. Gift wrapping by Miramonte High School students will be available on site.

Coldwell Banker makes YOU #1

Jeannette Bettencourt, CB Agent

"I have never come across a real estate agent so definitively interested in the ultimate well being of her clients. She is extremely knowledgeable and understood our needs. Jeanette was always on our side and I have full confidence that we have the best agent in the East Bay working for us." – Michael L

Kim McAtee, CB Agent

"Working with Kim was a great pleasure. Her professionalism, experience, skill and personality were key to selling our house extremely quickly, for a price well above expectations, and more easily that we could possibly have imagined. We would highly recommend Kim to anyone selling their home." – Paul and Mindy
