Lion Dance Welcomes in Chinese New Year!

Rumbling drums chased bad spirits far, far away as Leung's White Crane dancers jumped and twirled at the Orinda Library Feb. 9 to welcome in the Chinese New Year. Their lion's yellow and gold hues represented good luck and fortune - the drums, the strong beat's of his heart, said drummers Brandon Lok and Calvin Zhes. With eyes batting, the fearsome, furry one further delighted children and adults as leaf after lettuce leaf appeared magically from his flapping jaw, promising a prosperous Year of the Snake.
