Garden and Apartments of Eden Nearing Completion

Indeed there will be gardens when the project on Mt. Diablo Boulevard is complete and of course apartment units at the still-under-construction, 46-unit affordable Lafayette Senior Apartments, by developer Eden Housing. The estimated completion date is January, 2014. Designed with many sustainable features for energy and water conservation, the focus of the project is providing a healthy living environment. Residents will have access to supportive services to help age in place. These apartments will be available to households earning 20-50 percent of the Contra Costa County area median income. Seventeen of the 46 units are specifically designed for seniors with disabilities. C. Tyson
