NCS Champions

By Caitlin Mitchell

The Acalanes Dons' girls' lacrosse team took home the 2014 NCS Division II championship - their second championship in a row and third title in four years.

After going undefeated in the DFAL, the Dons earned the top spot in the NCS tournament. Acalanes showed its dominance by cruising to the title. They outscored opponents 62-15, including a 21-9 win over No. 2 Piedmont in the finals on May 22.
