Summer at the Library a Hit

By Sophie Braccini

Teens and tweens had fun decorating cupcakes at the Moraga library.

Andrea Freyler is the acting librarian in Moraga – the town has had a little trouble holding on to a librarian for more than a few months since the departure of Linda Waldroup in 2011. Freyler and her team just concluded a very successful summer program for children of all ages. “Parents tell us that it has been a life saver for them,” said Freyler. “They knew that all summer long, every week, there was something fun they could count on at their library. Our program has been very diverse,” she beamed. “We’ve had dogs doing tricks, we’ve had movies, we’ve had a story teller, puppet shows, cupcake decorating, and the game truck came back. It’s been a different program every week.”

The best testimony to the quality of the entertainment is when the program is full. “When we presented the new Lego Movie, we were lucky to get a copy on opening night,” said Freyler.
