Orange October

The Giants' playoffs slogan, "Orange October," takes on a whole new meaning for Saint Mary's academic counselor, Judy Selland. Selland is wearing orange every day this month to cheer on her favorite baseball team, disregarding any hint from the fashionistas that red heads should avoid orange. The Giants super-fan even has enough orange clothes so that she can wear something different every day and not repeat outfits.

Selland works in the Student Affairs Office, monitoring and counseling students who are on academic probation. Perhaps it's the way she shows her gung-ho enthusiasm and loyalty that makes her so successful.
