Moraga Police Blotter

Missing person 6/17/15 An older gentleman who lives on Miramonte Drive reported to police that his 82-year-old wife who suffers from dementia was missing. The woman was later found uninjured by an acquaintance and returned home.

Abandoned car towed 6/17/15 A car with long-expired tags had been parked legally on Alta Mesa Drive. The car appeared abandoned. Police mailed notices to the registered owner and had the car towed.

Traffic accident 6/17/15 This T-bone was not on the grill, but rather at the intersection of Moraga Road and Corliss Drive. One car was pulling out from Corliss to head northbound on Moraga Road and failed to see a vehicle heading south on Moraga Road. Thankfully no injuries.

Identity theft 6/15/17 An Augusta Drive resident discovered his credit card had been used to make an unauthorized purchase online. The card owner reported the incident to his bank and the online retailer, and had the $348 charge reversed.

Lost, possibly stolen property 6/01/15 In late April a resident was contacted by her Moraga bank that the contents of her safety deposit box had been turned over to the California Secretary of State office for non-payment. The box owner filed a claim requesting that the contents be returned. When they were, the reporting person discovered a jewelry item worth $2,000 was missing.

License plate stolen 6/15/15 A Larch Avenue resident happened to park her BMW in the parking lot of the Moraga Police Department, where officers noticed that her front license plate was missing. She said it was there the day before, and the car owner didn't know if it was stolen or fell off her car.
