As Seen in Lamorinda A Road Less Traveled

Long-suffering residents will finally get relief from navigating the potholes on Arroyo Drive, a short residential street connecting Moraga's Corliss Drive and Orinda's Ivy Drive. The Moraga side has twice been repaved in recent years, most recently in 2014, while the Orinda side has languished for lack of funding, creating this interesting visual contrast. Repaving of the short stretch in Orinda is slated for later this summer, thanks to Measure J funding. V. Ryerson
