Super Bowl 50 A Homecoming for Miramonte Legend Dorsey

Ken Dorsey, the former All-American quarterback for Miramonte, who led the Mats to consecutive NCS Championship games in 1997 and 1998, was at Super Bowl 50 in a professional capacity on Sunday. The Orinda native, who became famous for his 38-2 run as a starter at the University of Miami (Fla.) and winning the NCAA national championship, now works as the quarterbacks coach for the Carolina Panthers - the 2015-2016 NFC Champions. The Panthers lost to the Denver Broncos 24-10. - S. Silva
