with such great songs as "I'll Be Seeing You," "Shoo-Shoo Baby," "G.I. Jive," "Over There" and "Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree."

The show is being performed to help benefit the disabled veterans from past and recent wars. There will be an opportunity to get to meet and learn about Patriots Honor, a nonprofit organization made up of "military helping military" and whose sole purpose is "giving back to those who gave."

The last part of the show will be a grand old sing-along of the greatest patriotic songs written, such as "God Bless America," "America The Beautiful," "Yankee Doodle Dandy," and "The Star Spangled Banner," that will be sure to have you rising to your feet.

Tickets are $15 or you can buy the Rheem Live Series Pass (May, June and July live events) for $65 online at www.lamorindatheatres.com. The Rheem Live Series Pass includes the May 21 USO Canteen and the following special events:
