4/13 Weapons

Police responded to 300 block of Moraga Road report of someone in possession of a knife on school property. Teachable moment for those involved.

4/13 Welfare check

Police responded to 400 block of Rheem Boulevard where it was reported a 30-something female threatened to harm herself. Subject was transported to local hospital.

4/14 Suspicious circumstances

An unknown 40-something male found hiding in a Rheem Boulevard backyard claimed to be hiding from unknown person/people from Oakland. No unusual activity was discovered, and the subject seemed free from the influence of drugs or alcohol, so police let the matter go.

4/14 Fraud

A man told police someone tried to apply for a Sprint cell phone in his name. Had the crook applied for a Samsung instead, the matter might have fizzled...

4/15 Suspicious circumstances

When someone tried...apparently unsuccessfully...to gain access to a resident's home, she asked police to advise her about securing her house a bit better.

4/15 Warrant arrest

Person calls police to report a theft. Person meets cops in front yard. Cops discover person has not one, but two outstanding warrants. Person taken into custody, when cops discover a "substantial" amount of methamphetamine on his/her person. Not the brightest thief in Moraga...

4/17 Suspicious circumstances

A dutiful son reported the possible theft of eight Chinese antiques from his mother's residence, valued at $400,000. Turns out the mother had just hidden the items away. They were all found, safe and sound.

4/17 ID theft

Someone filed a false tax return using the victim's social security number. Victim was advised to place a fraud alert on credit cards.

4/18 Suspicious circumstances

Campolindo High School staff turned a possibly illegal smoking device over to police.

4/18 Traffic incident

Hit and run for someone parked in the Safeway lot.

4/19 Vandal

What might have been a commercial burglary was only damage to the door hinges.

4/19 Traffic accident

A passing car didn't quite clear the rear view mirror of the car it was overtaking. Damage was slight.

4/19 Vandal

Subaru's rear passenger window smashed along 800 block of Augusta Drive.

4/19 Traffic accident

Hit-and-run accident at a fast food joint. Wonder if they came back later for their order?

4/20 Suspicious circumstances

What's a little weed...especially on 4/20...among friends? When a user puts a call out for buddies to join him smoking marijuana he claims someone...anonymously...threatened to kill him. Police found no evidence of a credible threat. Talk about a pipe dream!

4/21 Assault

Suspect in a domestic battery case was arrested and taken to Martinez.

4/24 ID Theft

Unsuccessful attempt to open multiple fraudulent credit cards.

4/24 Possible elder financial abuse Reports of possible elder financial abuse were unfounded.
