Party Favors: I love sending my guests home with a little treat or memento. I've given Christmas ornaments, small wrapped hand soaps, votive candles, small potted plants tied with ribbon, chocolates, and hot cocoa mix with a peppermint stick tucked in a mug.

The day before: I like to have the table set at least a day before, if it is a formal sit down. For more casual parties I lay out all my serving dishes and attach sticky notes with what food items are going where. It sounds silly, but I promise you, it's a lifesaver when you are running around the day of trying to get things ready. Place all the fresh flowers in their containers, this will give them a full day to open up and if you happen to realize you need more you are not running to the store last minute. I make sure all of my running around is done a day ahead, so that on the day of I can focus on getting the house ready.

Day of: After all the finishing touches, the table is set, the flowers are placed, I try and set aside at least an hour or two of downtime before the party. It may mean taking a leisurely bubble bath, or curling up on the sofa with a book and a cup of tea, or even a little power nap. Having that quiet time will help you recharge. One hour before everyone arrives light the candles and turn on some music.

Ding dong! Now go enjoy your guests. Happy Holidays, friends. I wish you and yours a very wonderful holiday and Happy New Year! See you in 2018!

Amanda's go-to cocktail: Sparkling Pomegranate Punch

- 3 tbsp. sugar
- 1 c. pomegranate juice
- 2 bottle Sparkling wine
- ¾ c. white wine
- 2 oranges
- 1 c. diced fresh pineapple
- ¼ c. pomegranate seeds
- Ice cubes
- In a punch bowl, dissolve the sugar in the pomegranate juice, stirring vigorously. Add the sparkling wine and white wine, then add the orange slices, diced pineapple, and pomegranate seeds. Serve the sparkling pomegranate punch over ice cubes.
