Giving Dreams an Address

Lafayette city council

Although unable to attend the meeting, Burks commented via email. "I'm honored to have been elected by my colleagues as vice mayor. I look forward to continued, productive engagement with my fellow council members and the people of Lafayette. We live in a special place and our residents, businesses and visitors rightfully expect and deserve the absolute best in their elected representatives - and this is what I intend to deliver."

"Under Mayor Tatzin's leadership and the support of our fantastic city staff," said Burks, "I'm confident and excited about the future of our city."

Outgoing Mayor Mike Anderson

the outgoing mayor had worked effectively to manage development and its impact on traffic and praised his ability to "rule with decorum and grace."

In his remarks as the incoming mayor, Don Tatzin also spoke of Anderson's ability to make people feel more comfortable, enabling substantial progress.

Tatzin pointed out accomplishments from the past year under Anderson's term, including roads fixed, lawsuits won and a healthy budget.

Anderson recognized each of the other council members that he said forms a cohesive group. He especially thanked Council Member Ivor Samson who stepped up to the task on short notice and whom Anderson said had been especially helpful to them in what was a fairly litigious year.

Tatzin remarked that he was delighted that they are all just "shifting chairs" with no one stepping down from the council.

New Orinda Vice Mayor

While Weiner very much wants to make more opportunities for more affordable housing, his bill provides a disincentive for cities to zone for multi-family housing because it allows developers to bypass city rules if they build multi-family residences and pay prevailing wages. SB 35 only applies to land already zoned for multi-family dwellings, and Miller doesn't see the city adding any multi-family zoning in the foreseeable future.

When asked if she could envision a time when Orinda would join with the jurisdictions of Lafayette and Moraga, Miller said she could not. Orinda is not Lafayette, she said, with better traffic control. Additionally, Orinda is more fiscally conservative than either Lafayette or Moraga. With its small tax base, Orinda provides employees with a 401(a) investment plan but is not a PERS city, like Moraga. Orinda puts an amount equal to 10 percent of each employee's salary into a 401(a) account, and matches an additional 3 percent contributed by the employee.

Miller is married and practices transactional real estate law.
