Ob-la-di, ob-la-da ... Town Hall celebrates 50 years since Beatles' White Album release

Stack urges concertgoers to come dressed as a favorite character from the album. "Do some research ... go for a drive and listen to the album right through for inspiration," says Stack, who wants people to really get into the event.

Local celebrity judges include lead guitarist for Night Ranger, Brad Gillis; VP of licensing for the Beatles, Steve Senk; and the Sun King's Drew Harrison. Everyone gets a signed poster.

The lobby of the theater will be decorated. With a nod to "Back in the USSR" the house cocktail will be a White Russian. And 40 lucky people will attend the "White Circle" before the show, which will include a champagne and appetizer reception, and a panel discussion with members of the Sun Kings.

If Stack's role in the evening is the celebratory production, for the Sun Kings it is all about the music.

Harrison, who delivers the Lennon vocals and plays lead guitar with the Sun Kings, says the White Album might be his favorite Beatles record. "Great lyrics, melodies and rock and roll," he says.

He explains how the Beatles affected the lives of so many growing up at that time. "Liverpool was bombed and depressed but they (the Beatles) saw opportunity. The world shaped them and they shaped the world," he says, explaining that the Beatles were a bright spot. "Their message was that we'll be OK. The key for them was to make things better."

In fact, Harrison has just performed his solo "In the Spirit of Lennon" show at the Cavern in Liverpool, where the Beatles got their start, in what was surely a highlight in his musical career.

Along with Harrison the Sun Kings is comprised of Scott Southard, who takes the Paul Mc-

Cartney vocals and plays bass, guitar and piano, Bruce Coe who does the George Harrison vocals and plays guitar and piano, Steve Scarpelli (Ringo) on drums, percussion and vocal, and Michael Barrett on keyboards, orchestrations, guitar, percussion, harmonica and vocals. They have had this lineup for two years but have been around as a band for 18 years. Although they each lean toward a particular Beatles member, they are not a caricature band. They do build lots of story telling into their shows.

Harrison is looking forward to a fun party celebrating this 50th anniversary and echoes Stack's enthusiasm for dressing as a White Album character. "There's plenty to choose from - Bungalow Bill, Rocky Raccoon, Sexy Sadie, Desmond and Molly Jones, Chairman Mao for a start."

"Life is a participation sport," says Stack. "Play along - it's really fun."
