2018 Citizens of the Year. Andy & Carole Amstutz accept a proclamation from Orinda Mayor Inga Miller and Vice Mayor Darlene Gee.

By Sora O'Doherty

The largest ever gathering for the Orinda Community Foundation/Orinda Association awards for the 2018 Citizen of the Year and the 2018 William Penn Mott Jr. Environmental awards were treated to a special acceptance speech when one of the winners of the Citizen of the Year award, Carole Amstutz, gave an impromptu performance of the song "Magic Penny" by Malvina Reynolds.

Following the consultant selection, the launch and the workshop, ConnectOrinda received over 1,000 comments between the workshop and online surveys, and projects were presented to the Orinda City Council March 5 to be selected for further study. Following that, the next steps to downtown developments are a celebration in May, with the final plan to be presented in September.

City staff and the project consultants, Eisen|Letunic, presented 19 projects for the council's consideration.
