Lamorinda Water Polo Club hosted a College Commitment Celebration at Miramonte High School on Wednesday, April 17. As Lamorinda Water Polo marks its 20th year, the club recognizes these outstanding student athletes for their excellence and dedication to water polo and academics. The Club thanks its coaches and staff led by Guy Baker (Executive Director), James Lathrop (Boys Director and 18U Boys Coach) and Kim Everist (Girls Director and 18U Girls Coach) for their commitment to helping these graduating athletes achieve their academic and athletic goals.

Lamorinda Water Polo Club offers year-round age-group programs and Splashball for boys and girls, age 5-18, and three-day a week introductory water polo summer camps for kids age 5-12.
