Shooting in Moraga injures three

By Nick Marnell

Three people were shot in an apparent domestic dispute outside the Moraga Starbucks early Sunday evening, Jan. 19, according to the Moraga Police Department.

Police officers responded to the incident in the Rheem Shopping Center about 7:30 p.m. and found two shooting victims in a vehicle at the scene. The victims and witnesses described the suspect and told officers he had run north from the area. Officers found the suspect, identified as Isaiah Glaze, 21, of Sacramento, suffering from a gunshot wound in a parking lot in the 400 block of Moraga Road. Officers also recovered a firearm near the suspect.

"At this point, the gunshot wound suffered by Glaze appears to have been self-inflicted. The incident remains under investigation, but Glaze and one of the victims had a prior dating relationship and the incident may be domestic violence related," said Police Chief Jon King in a statement.

The victims and suspect were treated by Moraga-Orinda Fire District paramedics. One victim and the suspect were transported by ambulance to John Muir Medical Center in Walnut Creek.

Anyone with information about the incident is asked to contact the Moraga Police at (925) 888-7056 or (925) 888-7055.
