

Published April 29th, 2020

Pink flamingos have sprung up on lawns during pandemic

By Pippa Fisher

Photo provided

Lafayette realtor Kristina McCann is helping local children celebrate by delivering a flock of flamingos to their lawns the night before their quarantined birthday. Word has spread and the flamingo-wrangler is now up to almost 100 families. McCann is providing the services for free but encourages those who wish to make a donation to support local schools.

Reach the reporter at: pippa@lamorindaweekly.com

back

Copyright © Lamorinda Weekly, Moraga CA