Orinda Starlight Village Players performed "Tartuffe" by Molière at the opening performance of the troupe's 38th season performing in the theater at the Orinda Community Park. For this season, all shows are readers theater, a minimalist style of performance where no sets are used and scripts are openly used by the cast. Upcoming performances include a mini 10-minute play festival on Aug. 20, 21, and 22, and a triple tryst of terror on Aug. 27, 28 and 29.
