Annual bookmark contest opens for entrants

Submitted by Katherine Pekarul

Friends of the Lafayette Library and Learning Center is looking for K-8 students to create an original bookmark illustrating a favorite book. Entry forms are available in Lafayette school libraries, the Lafayette Library and Friends Corner Book Shop. The contest began Feb. 10 and all entries are due March 3. Winners will be recognized at the library on April 27 during an award ceremony. The beautiful printed bookmarks will be available for all library and book shop patrons to use and enjoy. The winning bookmarks will be framed by Anthony's Custom Picture Framers and displayed in the library and book shop. For more information, contact Kay Pekarul, kae865@hotmail.com
