The city of Lafayette's Public Art Committee invites the public to the exhibit "A Show of Hands" by the Bay Area Studio Artists (BASA). This exhibit of acrylic and oil paintings highlights the wonder of hands as explored by the eight members of the BASA, a group of painters who have been showing their work together since 2010. They work in a wide-ranging mix of subject matter and styles. All of the artists are present or past residents of Lafayette and nearby communities. This eclectic exhibition is on view through May 4 at the Town Hall Theatre Gallery (3535 School Street). BASA has previously exhibited at the Lafayette Library and Learning Center, the Art Gallery at the Orinda Library, The Village Theater Art Gallery in Danville, The Marilyn Citron O'Rourke Gallery at the Benicia Library, the Aspen Surgery Center at John Muir Hospital, Orinda Books, Main Street Arts Gallery in Martinez, the Napa City Library, and other wine country venues.
