Submitted by George Ehrenhaft

The Moraga Art Gallery (432 Center Street in the Rheem Shopping Center) on Wednesday, June 7 will welcome a riveting new exhibit, "Moments in Time," featuring the work of two popular local artists: Judy Miller, a sculptor who captures figures at particular moments in their lives, both ordinary and unique, and acrylic painter Debby Koonce, whose forte is colorful and appealing images of outdoor places both near (Mt. Diablo) and far (other lands).

Also featured is a collection of woven art by guest artist Dinah McFarlane, whose abstract wall hangings consist of materials that have been painstakingly layered, woven, dyed, twisted, looped and shaped into strikingly colorful, eye-catching assemblages.

The exhibit, which also includes the work of more than 20 other artists - photographers, ceramicists, jewelry-makers, painters, woodworkers, printmakers, and more, will grace the gallery until Aug. 13.

A free reception will be held on Saturday, June 17 from 5 to 7 p.m. The public is invited to view the art, chat with the artists, enjoy wine, light snacks, tasteful music and the company of fellow art lovers. The gallery, is open Wednesday to Sunday from noon to 5 p.m. For more information, visit www.moragaartgallery.com or call (925) 376-5407.
