Orinda Police Blotter

What's the Dope on These Two? 11/14/11

Guys, listen up: ya gotta drive carefully if you're doing something illegal, 'cause the cops will find out when they pull you over. A perfect example: two male suspects stopped for driving with expired plates were found to be in the company of methadone smoking devises, scales, meth and 100 small baggies of marijuana. They were transported to Martinez Detention Facility, where they were booked on a variety of charges.

Good Intentions, Bad Idea, 11/14/11

A brown Jeep parked off Camino Pablo was found with its engine running and lights on. The driver, a 52-year old male, was found asleep at the wheel. Apparently, he was trying to sleep one off after admittedly "having a beer... earlier this morning." The problem was that this man was already on probation. Even though he only blew .047, he was arrested for violating parole and taken to Martinez Detention Facility.
